

JOSHUA E.S. PHILLIPS

Author and recipient of the Heywood Broun Award and Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Award for excellence in broadcast journalism

Discusses:

“None of Us Were Like This Before: Reflections on American Soldiers and Torture”

November 16, 2011
Carwein Auditorium
7:00-8:45 pm

"Joshua Phillips' incredible work in documenting the experience of soldiers who detained and interrogated detainees reflects the huge dilemma and consequences of their actions. His book is about accountability where senior leaders in the military and in the highest level of government failed to account for their actions, failed to protect soldiers who expected clear instructions, and failed the Nation in preventing torture and abuse of the enemy."

-U.S. Army Major General (ret)
Antonio Taguba

Sponsored by:

Washington State Religious Campaign Against Torture • HOPE Network (UWT)
Western Washington Fellowship of Reconciliation • Amnesty International
United for Peace of Pierce County • Veterans for Peace